

IIM Raipur donates amount for differently-abled children

Differently-abled students performing in an event.

■ Staff Reporter

RAIPUR, Mar 26

THE Consultancy and Entrepreneurship Club of Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Raipur organised the closing ceremony of "Mudit Vriddhi 8.0" and provided NGOs with various essential supplies. The eighth edition of the event was conducted as a part of the institute's annual festival, "Equinox". Mudit-Vriddhi—which means 'Augmenting Happiness', is an event organized every year by the institute with the aim to maximize the profit earned by selling artifacts and utilize the earnings for uplifting the underprivileged children in Raipur.

The participants of the event were asked to sell artifacts door to door, made by the tribal population of Chhattisgarh. The agenda of the event was to raise considerable amount of fund for NGOs working for the differently-abled children. The event registered a sum of Rs 68000 in its books. The supporting sponsors for "Mudit Vriddhi 8.0" were GKTMT, Bastar Arts and Krishna Public School. The NGOs which were associated with the event were Pratham Open schools, Kopalvani and Aakanksha Lions School for the mentally challenged children.

The guests for the benefaction ceremony were Gaurav Agarwal, CEO -Real Ispat and Power Ltd., Sudhakar Singh, Director-Bastar Arts and Ashutosh Tripathi, Director-Krishna Public School. The event started with the vote of thanks by Dr Dhananjay Bapat, Chairman-Students Affair, IIM Raipur. Dr Satyasiba Das, Chairman-Corporate Relations, IIM Raipur welcomed all the guests and appreciated all the participants for their fruitful efforts. The highlights of the evening were the cultural performances given by the differently-abled children.