The programme aims to prepare mid and senior level executives to take up higher responsibilities within their respective organizations without hampering their professional engagement with their organizations. This twenty-four months program having batch strength of around 70 is spread over eight terms of three months each in a manner that classes would be held on alternate weekends.

The programme would have participants from many reputed private and public sector enterprises belonging to diverse domains including mining, management consulting, softwares, automobiles, hospitality services, healthcare etc. to name a few.

The programme offers a holistic blend of various general management theories, soft skills, and analytical methods supplemented by rural and international immersion over more than 600 hours of contact hours. The 24 months PGPMWE would have four terms in each of the two years having both foundational and advanced courses.

Foundation courses will focus on creating a strong base of understanding the fundamental principles of effective management in modern business organizations. This section will also focus on developing understanding of the businesses in increasingly globalized economic and political environment thus helping to crystallize the fundamental, conceptual and analytical knowledge.

Advanced level courses will prepare students for taking up higher responsibilities and leadership positions. International Immersion will supplement the leadership quality of the students to work in a cross-cultural and globalized environment. Advanced courses of the program include the following:

The selection process is designed to ensure significant diversity in academic, business and cultural background.

During the course of this program, interaction with peers and faculty will augment many skills, appreciation of differing perspectives, effective communication, conflict management, negotiation and mobilizing individuals towards common goals—all essential ingredients of effective management practices.

The overall goal of the programme is to broaden core leadership competencies to further enhance the professional growth of participants.
